

at the U.S. Naval War College invites you to a Stockton Series Event:

Ships and Seizure: A Conversation about Enforcing North Korea Sanctions at Sea

Wednesday, 30 June 2021, from 12:00 to 1:00 (EDT)

In October 2019, a United States federal judge ordered M/V WISE HONEST forfeited to the United States, representing the first ever seizure and forfeiture of a North Korean cargo vessel for sanctions violations. This Stockton Series event will explore the factual, legal, and practical implications of enforcing sanctions by seizing a foreign-flagged commercial vessel in non-U.S. waters.

Expert:

Mr. Christian Ford, former U.S. Deputy Assistant Attorney General, currently a Visiting Fellow at the National Security Institute at George Mason University's Antonin Scalia Law School

Facilitator:

Commander Michael Petta, U.S. Coast Guard, Associate Director of Maritime Operations, Stockton Center for International Law, U.S. Naval War College
