

Title: Unmanned Aerial Systems in the Ukraine War

Speaker: Mr. Sebastian Roblin

Date: 13 October 2022

Time: 1200-1315

Where: C-135 A&B

POC: Prof. John Jackson

SYNOPSIS:

Join us for an in-depth discussion of how Unmanned Aerial Vehicles (UAVs) are being used to devastating effect by both sides in the on-going Ukraine war. Our guest speaker is an award-winning journalist who has researched and written extensively on the use of "drones" in this brutal fight. This lecture offers the opportunity to understand the capabilities and limitations of these systems and to go beyond the sound-bites and video-clips we have all seen on the nightly news.

BIO:

Sebastien Roblin writes on the technical, historical, and political aspects of international security and conflict for publications including the 19FortyFive, The National Interest, NBC News, Forbes.com, and "War is Boring". He holds a Master's degree from Georgetown University and served with the Peace Corps in China.
