

Issues in National Security Lecture Series

AY 2025 – 2026

| Speaker(s)   | Lecture Topic  | Date                                |
|--|--|-------------------------------------|
| Professor Jason Vogt andProfessor Nina Kollars | Taiwan Digital Blockade: Securing Communications and Energy During Conflict                      | 13-Jan                              |
| Professor David Kohnen                             | Naval War College and American Sea Power   | 10-Feb                              |
| Professor Ian Easton                               | Operation Causeway   | 17-Feb(rescheduled from 27-Jan) |
| Professor David Burbach                            | Space and National Security  | 24-Feb                              |
| Professor James Holmes                             | Monroe Doctrines at Home and Abroad  | 17-Mar                              |
| Professor Lisa Kerr andCapt. Paul Tremblay     | The Role of Spirituality and Religion in Warfighting Readiness                                   | 24-Mar                              |
| Professor Peter Dombrowski                         | Shipbuilding, Remote Autonomous Systems, and the Hybrid Fleet                                    | 7-Apr                               |
| Professor Dex Wilson                               | Maritime Silk Road   | 14-Apr                              |
| Professor Frank Sobchak                            | Lost in Translation: Lessons in Security Force Assistance from Special Forces Advisory Missions" | 5-May                               |
| Professor Brad Carter                              | POW/MIA commemoration and symbolism  | 19-May                              |

*Lectures being at 1630 in Spruance Auditorium

*Lectures are simulcast live via Zoom and recordings will be available on the USNWC YouTube channel