

Title: Risks to the Economy: Supply Chain and Inflation

Speaker: Mr. Robert Frick

Date: 12 January 2022

Time: 1200-1315

Where: Virtual LOO via Zoom

POC: Dr. Thomas Gibbons

Zoom meeting:

<https://usnwc.zoom.us/j/82065485278?pwd=VHhkSTNEdU10T1Z6UDc4Q1Z6MyswUT09>

Passcode: 575228

SYNOPSIS:

The presentation will look at the US economy that is beset by unique challenges. The pandemic which is still having lasting effects, and the most recent challenges ... the supply chain crisis and inflation. Mr. Frick will be discussing when these problems are likely to end and how the economy will look in the post-COVID era.

BIO:

Mr. Robert Frick is corporate economist for Navy Federal Credit Union, a position he has held since May of 2017.

He worked as a business and financial journalist for 30 years, learning about microeconomics at the firm level and the city level while a business reporter and editor for the Democrat & Chronicle newspaper in Rochester NY. As an editor at Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine for 15 years, he oversaw coverage of cars, housing, the economy and investing, among other topics.

In his position at Navy Federal Credit Union, he is regularly quoted by the press on subjects ranging from employment and consumer spending to housing.

Bob holds a BA in Journalism and an MBA in Finance from Penn State University.