

Title: Suffragism and the Women's Right to Bear Arms
Speaker: Dr. Mary Raum, PhD, Professor, National Security Affairs
Date: 8 March 2023
Time: 1200-1315
Where: C-135A/B
POC: Dr. Mary Raum, PhD, Professor, National Security Affairs

SYNOPSIS:

Suffragism and Women's Right to Bear Arms is based on research from Dr. Raum's upcoming Taylor and Francis book entitled Art, Artifact, Women and War. Highlighted will be pre and World War I stories from field medicine including Mable St Clair Stobart who organized the Women's Sick and Wounded Convoy Corps (Serbia), Drs. Flora Murray and Louisa Garrett, BEF, Army Endell Street Hospital, London and the Edinburgh 7 Surgeons Hall Riot. Historical markers up to the 18th century about women's rights will be described.

BIOs:

Dr. Raum is Professor of National Security Affairs and teaches the history of women and war combat elective. Raum is a lifetime member of the Council on Foreign Relations and served as the founder of the Swanee Hunt Named Chair in Women Peace and Security from 2009-2019. She is currently completing her second diploma in Art History with Cambridge University.